“Our God given mission is to connect people with Jesus.”

“Our vision sees people connected with Jesus through a discipling process that gathers them into our fellowship of believers where we are nurtured in the Christian faith, as we go into our neighborhoods and beyond to do the work of our Lord and Savior.”

Playground Equipment

Great news! We have donated $9259 towards the playground equipment. Since we want to fence the new equipment, and my estimate for fencing is about $4000, we are just over 50% of the way there. Below is a picture of the pieces of equipment we want to purchase. So, if we all pull together we can probably have this stuff up by the end of the school year in May, or certainly by the beginning of the next school year. Now if we really hustle we can have this up in March.

Granite Manor Play Center

Red Play Jeep
Arch Climber
Spring Bouncer
Merry Go Cycle

Christianity 101

For those who would like to know more about what Lutheran Christians teach and believe this course is provided periodically to provide this information. The course assumes that you have little working knowledge of the scripture (though you might) and little knowledge of Lutheran doctrine (again you might) the class leads to church membership if you desire. Our next offering will be Friday evening March 1, 2019 from 7p-9p and Saturday March 2, 2019 from 9a-5p Lunch is provided. Sign up on the Record of Fellowship sheet. We pray you'll consider taking this class.

Panda Pantry

Looking for donations of food or money. There is a real need for this service to the community. The schools have asked us to provide additional bags this year as the need is great. Please consider giving to this outreach program. Needed items: Fruit cups, ramen noodles, granola Bars, oatmeal, Rice Krispy Treats, chips, crackers (small sleeve Ritz or similar), canned meat (tuna), applesauce, Pop tarts, popcorn, juice boxes, mac & cheese, raviolis, and peanut butter/cheese crackers. Items need to be single serving small sizes, so the students can take them home in their backpacks.

DAR Meeting

On February 9th, Dave Thomen will give a presentation to Mine Run Chapter, NSDAR on how information from old family photos can help you as you compile a genealogy. He will discuss methods for helping you find clues to solve the mystery of: "Is it Grandma or Great-Great Grandma?" In addition, in those family photos of known people may be clues that you've overlooked. Dave's presentation will cover how to use photos to help you in your overall genealogy research, as well as hints and strategies he's used to build his family's genealogy picture. Old photos and their preservation has been a key aspect of his 45 years of genealogy research. The meeting will be held in the Fellowship Hall. Mr. Thomen's presentation will begin about 10:00 a.m. For more information contact Linda Gagion ligagion@gmail.com.

Ladies of Redeemer

Please join Redeemer Women in Mission(LWML) for a cup of coffee or cocoa on Saturday, February 9th at 10am in the double classroom downstairs. We will be collecting Mites and talking through opportunities to serve Redeemer, the local community and other missions across the US and abroad. The hope is that our new LWML chapter will be one that provides Redeemer ladies of all ages a chance to share their gifts and talents: finding joy in service to others and to our Lord! We look forward to seeing you all! Any questions? Please see Marian Dawgert or Anita Diederer.

Redeemer Men

Come join the men of Redeemer at the 2019 Noble Man Conference. Formerly known as Iron Sharpens Iron, this year's Fredericksburg event will be held on March 9th from 8:30 am to 4:55 pm at Mount Ararat Baptist Church in Stafford. This year's nationally known guest speaker are:

Sticky Christians - Overcoming “Church Shuffle Syndrome”

If it isn't some sort of record, it must be close to it. My father, who lived to be just a few months shy of 100, was a member of his church for 85 years.

I wish I could tell you that those 85 years were wonderful, glorious years for his church. Unfortunately, that wouldn't be quite true. While the majority of them were indeed great years of ministry, there were some truly horrible years that the church endured as well. And yet, through it all, my dad and mom – who died at the age of 79 – stuck it out.

Their example has influenced my understanding of what it means to be committed to a church. And since we live in a culture that values choice and change over commitment and stability – values that have influenced the way American Christians nationwide relate to their church – I'd like to explain my understanding of what it means to be a member of a church.

A local church is a real-time expression of the body of Christ. When we become a member of a church, we are grafted into that body as a functional organ. As an organ, we grow blood vessels, sinews, and nerves to other parts of the body. We develop meaningful relationships with others as we serve each other in love, becoming dependent on them and they on us. When someone simply up and leaves a church, a gaping hole forms that the rest of the body feels deeply.

The relationships we form in church will last into eternity. It's easy to think that our earthly marriage and family relationships are more important than those we have at church. But eternally speaking, that is not true. Marriage and family relationships end at death. Church relationships do not.¹

We participate in a church to serve, not to be served. Two basic kinds of people attend church: consumers and producers. Consumers will always leave a church when their needs are not being met, sometimes leaving behind them a trail of criticism and negativity. Producers, on the other hand, see a church as an opportunity to contribute, to further the mission of the church. Therefore, producers are much more committed and stable than consumers are.

Difficult times in a church are an opportunity for us to show our true Christian character. Let's face it, churches are battlegrounds. Eternal warfare is being waged on many different levels in all churches. Most of the time churches win those battles with genuine worship, prayer, and loving service. But sometimes churches – and their pastors – lose a battle or two big time. These are not times for us to cut and run. They are times for us to stay and be a healing balm for the body of Christ.

All churches change over time. Have you found a church you love? Sooner or later it will change. And some – maybe many – of those changes you won't like. Well, get over it. It's not your church. It's Christ's church. And he will do with it as he pleases.
