

Christ Care Groups Dave Allen, Coordinator

Small Group Ministries build close personal Christian friendships as we grow in faith through Bible study, prayer and fellowship in a small and personal setting.

Small Groups are building blocks of the larger church. A place where people are ministered to, encouraged, empowered and equipped by one another for service to God through the Holy Spirit.

*Fellowship Amanda Badwin, Coordinator

The Fellowship Committee encourages and coordinates congregational fellowship among Redeemer members through meals, community events and special activities. We support other congregational committees in coordinating church-wide special events, rallies and meetings. The committee coordinates special birthdays, wedding anniversaries and other milestone events for our members and their families. Individuals on the committee discover and use their special gifts and talents to nurture God's people in many ways. The committee is a team of members that love to laugh, play, work hard all with the mission to connect people with Jesus!

This ministry is to provide meals and support for funerals and memorial services. The meals are served in the fellowship hall with food provided by our congregational members. Volunteers are called to donate certain items according to the menu. There is no charge for this meal, but donations are accepted. If you want to be added to the call list for meal preparation call Sharon at 540-891-4370

Prayer Chain, Linda Gagion, Prayer Coordinator

The Prayer Chain is a ministry of Redeemer Prayer Warriors that receive requests for prayer, praise and thanksgiving and faithfully lift these requests up to the Lord. Although we are all called to pray for one another by the Lord Himself, the Prayer Chain is an organized effort by those in our congregation who have joined forces as one body to exercise our spiritual gifts together in a mighty way on behalf of those who have requested it. These requests come from both inside and outside of Redeemer and is a powerful means of both witnessing and shoring up the faith of believers and to fight the good fight of faith.

Prayer Shawls      Bev Zepp, Coordinator

A shawl that is lovingly hand knit or crocheted out of a soft comforting yarn that is blessed by the one who made it, and wrapped around the shoulders of someone who needs the sort of comfort only the love and generosity of a caring friend can provide.

Quilting      Anna Jennings, Coordinator

Redeemer Quilt Ministry makes warm colorful quilts to support Lutheran World Relief (LWR) as they provide aid to refugees displaced overseas. Quilts are distributed to war torn areas and to areas suffering from natural disasters. This local ministry is supported by donations of fabrics and sewing supplies. Thrivent provides grant monies for purchase of quilt batting.

Redeemer Quilters have an annual goal of 100 quilts. Quilters meet the 3rd Sat monthly 9 am til noon in church fellowship hall to make quilts. We invite all ages and all skill levels to join with us in providing warm colorful quilts to God's children in need.
